Dear Moo,

I've been looking forward to reading the Stone interview you said you'd send me after reading parts of it to me.

As of today's mail it hasn't come.

I'd like very much to have it and anything else quoting The Great One.

With regard to the threats he's been making, when I got the current The Nation magazine and saw its first article, on the repressive nature of a decision against it for publishing 250 words of Gerald Ford's book before it was published, I realized, I think, the lever Stone has.

If you've forgotten to mail that interview, please be reminded.

If you want it returned I'll do that.

Thanks and best wishes,

Harold
